

Sponsored by the Social Action Committee of The Park Slope United Methodist Church.

Co-Sponsored by Brooklyn For Peace, Brooklyn Society for Ethical Culture, The Muslim Consultative Network, Peace Action Bay Ridge Interfaith Peace Coalition, WFD First Unitarian Congregational Society Brooklyn, and the Muslim Progressive Traditionalist Alliance

10 Years On: Afghanistan & Pakistan

FILM and Q & A with filmmaker Kathleen Foster and Afghan Women's Fund Director Fahima Vorgetts

Saturday March 3rd 2012

Pot Luck Dinner 6:30 PM
Movie and Discussion 7:30-9 PM

Park Slope United Methodist Church
8th Street and 6th Avenue, Brooklyn NY

Kathleen Foster's new film illuminates the human cost of the Middle East wars in Afghanistan and now Pakistan as communities respond to drone and military attacks, suicide bombings and a desperate economic situation. Fahima Vorgetts, Director of the Afghan Women's Fund will join Ms. Foster to address the implications of U.S./NATO plans to make a deal with the Taliban, and give insight into Obama administration military decisions.

Craft Sales 5-7:30 PM

Afghan Jewelry, Accessories, Embroideries, Carpets

All proceeds from the Craft Sales Fundraiser will go to Afghan Girls' Schools supported by the Afghan Women's Fund (AWF), an all-volunteer organization that builds schools and health clinics for girls, and community cooperatives for women.

This is a free event.

Attending the pot luck?
RSVP at sandibklyn@msn.com.